Raymond V. Mailloux Named Interim Administrator at Bedford Nursing & Rehabilitation Center

Bedford, NH – Bedford Nursing & Rehabilitation Center (BNRC), a home for 102 skilled nursing and rehabilitation patients, announced today that Raymond V. Mailloux has been appointed Interim Administrator overseeing the day to day operation and management of the BNRC facility.

Prior to joining BNRC, Ray was the Director of Health Care Services for New Hampshire Catholic Charities. He was responsible for the overall supervision and direction of the agency's six JCAHO accredited nursing facilities, two elderly apartment complexes and five managed nursing/residential care facilities. He was later promoted to Chief Executive Officer of New Hampshire Catholic Charities. Ray currently owns and operates Community House Calls, Inc., which provides in-home support services to seniors and adults with disabilities.

With more than 35 years of long-term care and healthcare management experience, Mailloux will be responsible for the day-to-day operations of the 102 bed facility, as well as improving operational policy and procedures, and setting the strategic direction for the facility. "I am very excited to be here – you can feel the care as soon as you walk through the door. The staff works as a team and has a commitment to quality that is unmatched. I look forward to working with them through this transition with great anticipation!" said Mailloux.

"We are very thrilled to have Ray here as Interim Administrator. His knowledge, experience and energy are a great asset for us as we continue to implement quality improvements to our systems and build a community and facility known for providing the highest quality of care to our residents" said John M. Turcotte, President & CEO of BNRC.
